CHARLES ROBERT DARWIN
British Naturalist
1809-1882
On this exact day in 1809 at Shrewsbury, England, Charles Robert Darwin was born. Darwin was more to just being the person behind the idea that humans first came from apes. He made various notable contributions to science that laid the groundwork for biology and geology. Darwin is well known for the "Theory of Natural Selection," also referred to as the "survival of the fittest."
